

Growing up in Hawaii, Karlie G was introduced to the ukulele at a young age as "something to do," she quickly fell in love with the little four-stringed instrument. At the age of 17 she has won numerous ukulele/vocal and songwriting competitions and has performed at corporate events, festivals, and weddings across the State.

Karlie released her debut EP album in 2016 titled "Till The End" which consists of all original compositions that features the unique sound of the ukulele, creating her own style of "Pop-R&B-Island."

In 2018 Karlie produced and engineered her first full-length album titled "Have Fun." The album received a 2019 Na Hoku Hanohano award for "R&B album of the year."

Karlie has fast become known as a creative 'looping' artist, where she uses effect pedals during live performances effectively creating a one-girl band. She covers a wide variety of artists and genres and has fast grown a dedicated following on YouTube.
